TODAYS WORSHIP FOCUS

Bartimaeus could not be silent when he learned that Jesus was walking by him on the road out of Jericho. He trusted that the Nazarene could heal his sight and so he would not give up calling out to him. God hears us when we call to him. He has promised us mercy and forgiveness. He has done wondrous things for us and continues to see our deepest needs. May we call on Jesus with joy and thanksgiving.

WELCOME VISITORS

A special welcome to our visitors. Please complete a visitor card and join us for refreshments and fellowship after the service. When the Lord's Supper is celebrated, we invite all to come forward to receive the sacraments, simply believes the words of Christ that he is present, for you, in with and under the bread and wine. Children who come forward will receive a special blessing. Our Guest Book is located in the entrance to the sanctuary, and please share your Email address there too.

CALL TO WORSHIP

P Let us pray.

C Almighty God, you pour out on all who desire it the spirit of grace and supplication. Deliver us, as we come into your presence, from cold hearts and wandering thoughts, that with steady minds and burning zeal we may worship you in spirit and in truth; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

 as you are able*

BRIEF ORDER FOR CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

The minister leads the congregation in the invocation. The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen

P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Kneel/Stand

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P Most merciful God,

C we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

The minister addresses the congregation.

P Almighty God, in his mercy, has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

C Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

Listening for the Promise

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost – October 24, 2021

“...followed him on the way.” (Mark 10:52)

A man is in dire need. As Jesus passes by him the man calls out, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” He is blind and destitute. Jesus has mercy and heals him. Though there are miraculous healings in Mark, Jesus is not here primarily to give us happiness, or to solve our problems, or to meet our needs, wants, or desires. Jesus tells the beggar, “Go!” That is, go your way, you have suffered long enough, go out and live a happy life. But the man literally disobeyed Jesus and “followed him on the way” (vs. 52) and became a disciple. Perhaps it’s not the healing, but rather following Jesus that is the point. Maybe Jesus has come to help and heal us, but also to place a claim on us and call us. When Bartimaeus’ eyes were opened, possibly he saw Jesus as the one we are to follow. Sure, Jesus promises to sustain us, help us, heal us, and open our eyes, but mostly Jesus calls us to play a part in his mission for the world. Jesus has tried to teach his disciples that he is not headed for glory and power. He is on his way to Jerusalem, where he will be betrayed, suffer, and then crucified on a cross. And Bartimaeus walks that way with him. In your life, you have received many blessings and good things from Jesus. One of the best things you have received is discipleship. Jesus has called out to you like Bartimaeus called out to Jesus. Jesus has broken through to you and said, “Follow me.” And you have followed. Your eyes have been opened and you “see,” you get the point. You are walking with Jesus. You have come to Jesus with your needs to be met, only to be met by Jesus’ claim upon you and his call to you, “Come, follow me, be my disciple.” And like Bartimaeus, you said, “Yes.” Perhaps Jesus really does want to fix what’s wrong with us. But he may have a very strange idea of what’s wrong. Maybe he knows that above all our other needs, we need a life worth living, a life with meaning that contributes something in the world of service to our neighbor. So Jesus puts in us a need for discipleship, a desire for our lives to count for something beyond our own lives. Jesus calls out to us, “Follow me.” Amen.

REFORMATION DAY
 Sunday, October
 31st 2021

From Our Pastor

The hint of autumn is in the air. Shadows grow longer, and the weather gets cooler. Our children have returned to school. Time to prepare our homes for the winter chill. It is also time to begin planning for the upcoming change in season at Church.

This is also the perfect time to explore new ways we can share our individual gifts with the rest of God's people during worship. Singers and musicians of all kinds are welcome to use their talents to the praise of God and lead His people in worship. Those interested in drama, dance and theatre are also encouraged to integrate these arts into the worship life of the congregation. No experience necessary. Worship is held each Sunday and each Wednesday. This opportunity is open to adults, teens, and children. We have a selection of short drama's and skits that are appropriate for church use and illustrate the lessons taught in the scriptures.

If you are interested in more traditional ways of being involved in worship, consider serving as a Scripture Reader, Liturgist (Worship Assistant), or Cantor (leading the congregation in singing hymns). Please contact Pastor Alan or the Church office to get started.

Since I will be serving Trinity a while longer, I am continuing a project I had originally planned for your new pastor to complete. The names and addresses on the map located in the fellowship hall will be gathered into clusters. These clusters will be a useful tool to ensure all our members are shepherded and receive ministry. More information how we can do this will be shared later. Our purpose is furthering Christ's Great Commission.
