8TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 18, 2021

9:00 A.M.

TODAYS WORSHIP FOCUS

The “shepherds” of Israel who were supposed to be caring for God’s people sinned against God and ended up far from home, exiled in Babylon. God would bring his people home to Jerusalem even as he would also send a shepherd who would restore his people to a right relationship with him. This one is Jesus, God’s only Son, who brought peace, reconciliation, and inclusion for all in God’s kingdom.

WELCOME VISITORS

A special welcome to our visitors. Please fill out a visitor card and join us for refreshments and fellowship after the service. Our Guest Book is located in the entrance to the sanctuary. You may also share your Email address in the Guest Book.

CALL TO WORSHIP

P Let us pray.

C Almighty God, you pour out on all who desire it the spirit of grace and supplication. Deliver us, as we come into your presence, from cold hearts and wandering thoughts, that with steady minds and burning zeal we may worship you in spirit and in truth; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

BRIEF ORDER FOR CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

The minister leads the congregation in the invocation. The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

- P In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen
- P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
C Amen
- P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Kneel/Stand

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

- P Most merciful God,
C we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

The minister addresses the congregation.

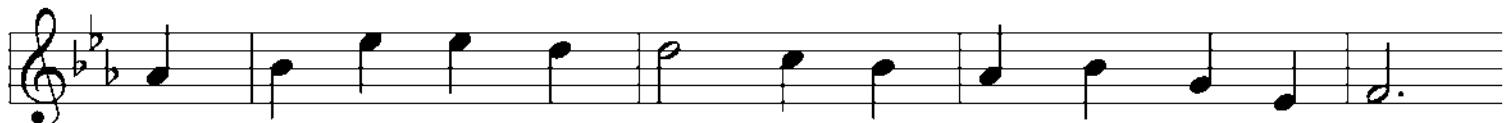

- P Almighty God, in his mercy, has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen

Listening for the Promise

WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

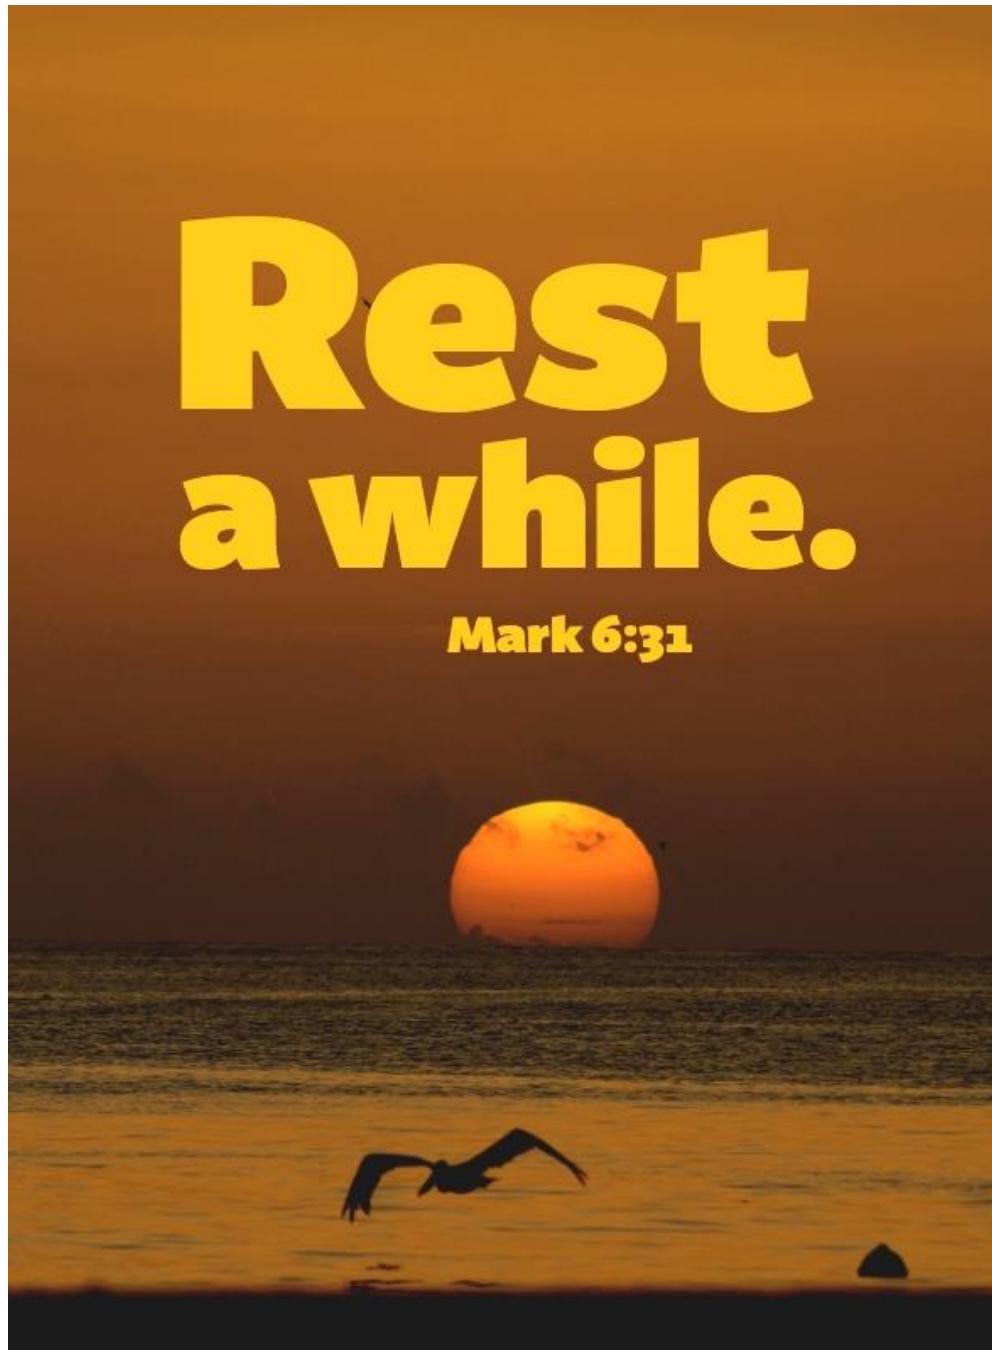

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost — July 18, 2021
“And he began to teach them many things.” (Mark 6:34)

The Christian faith does not come easily or naturally to us. We must be taught to be a Christian, or as some say, faith must be “caught.” We submit to God’s Word for teaching and we learn what it means to be Christians. At the end of Matthew’s Gospel (28:19), Jesus says, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” Jesus commands us to teach. No one is born with knowing the gospel, you can’t just “think it up” on your own. Someone has to teach it to you and someone has to preach it in your hearing in order for the good news of Jesus Christ to be yours as a free gift. After an outburst of the Holy Spirit in Acts 2:42, the church “devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching.” Being a disciple of Jesus is not the same as being a sensitive, caring, or “good” person. It’s not enough to say, “I was born in the US, which is basically Christian, so I became a Christian by breathing the air and drinking the water.” The saving news of Jesus Christ is opposite of the way the world saves. Disciples are those who have heard the good news of Jesus Christ, are transformed by the Holy Spirit, who then live in a world counter to the ways of the world. One of the titles for Jesus is “rabbi,” which means teacher. Jesus traveled through villages teaching. Now the disciples come back and report to Jesus about their mission and he says to them, “Let’s get away and rest a while.” They go to the desert but when they get there it is anything but deserted. Jesus begins to teach the crowd and satisfies their hunger with a miracle of fish and bread. Isn’t it interesting that the first thing Jesus does for the people is not feed, but rather teach? The crowds see themselves as hungry and in need of bread. Jesus sees them in need of teaching, and before Jesus meets their physical needs, he meets their need for instruction, explanation, and teaching. Perhaps Mark, by telling the story, means to remind us that there is a hunger for bread but also for “every word spoken by God.” Jesus feeds us our daily bread, but he also gives us the spiritual bread which is God’s holy Word. Amen.

ANY IDEAS??

The class on Lutheranism has concluded, and those of us that attended, thoroughly enjoyed it and learned a great deal. We would love to continue to learn and grow in our faith. So we are seeking ideas from the Congregation. Do you have any particular topics, Chapters or events of the Bible that you would like to explore? If you do, talk with Pastor Alan for possible scheduling. I just want to say that the 6 weeks of the last class flew by, and I feel renewed, reinvested, and comforted even more in my faith from having spent the time in class. So please feel free to make suggestions, we would love to hear from you!

From Our Pastor

As we move away from the pandemic, the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be offered more frequently. Currently it is offered the second and last Sunday morning of each month . The offering is now reincorporated into the order of service.

Help our future pastor get acquainted with TLC members. A map of the Lewiston-Clarkston area has been set up in the fellowship hall. The map area has been subdivided into color-coded areas or “clusters”. Each TLC household has been assigned a number. Please select a flag shaped pin corresponding to the color of the area where your home is located, write the assigned number on the flag using a marker pen, and stick the pin at your home’s location on the map. Thank you.

Musicians for the Wednesday evening worship services are still needed. If you would like to provide some music for any service, or accompany the gathered congregation’s singing, please see Pastor Daugherty or contact the Church Office. Wednesday evening worship begins @ 7 pm with Holy communion.
